God Is My Rock

We greet you in the name of Our Lord And Savior Jesus Christ, I thank God for another new day full of new mercies and full of God's grace, such an awesome God, He is my Wonderful Counselor when I need therapy I go to the rock that is higher than I, I have learned to stay off the phone and go to the throne, because the bible declares and I decree that Jesus Christ is sitting at the right hand of God making intercession for me, and Jesus is pleading my case to God, I don't care what comes or what or who steps out of your life and how dramatic it is or how dramatizing it is or how catastrophic it is Jesus said cast all your cares on him for He cares for you, No temptation or trial but what is common to man But God wimpy put no more on you than you can bear But out of all will make away of escape, you have to follow the escape route don't take a detour because it will take you longer to get to your destination stay on course and God will always see you through, Be Blessed and enjoy Gods day for this is the day that the Lord has made.

A Huge Thank You

We at PUSH Ministries want to thank all of those who have contributed financially, with cans of food, clothes and household items. It is because of your support we are able to take care of all that come to us that are less fortunate!!

We sell items for seniors and their families to generate cash for their estate or to pay for meds and other expenses. Items are on consignment with very low percentage rate, so the bulk of the cash goes back to client. The service is part of our Surrogate Daughter program with P.U.S.H.

A MOMENT

No one and I mean no one deserves to be harassed mentally or sexually in the work place by management or coworkers. Find a safe place and report it. If you have any questions, inbox or call us at 276 235 1059. This type of behavior is NOT acceptable!

Self-doubt & Self-esteem

Self-doubt and low self-esteem are the biggest hurdles to overcome. God created us in perfection and yes, we all have messed up at some time or another, BUT God forgave us and we need to forgive ourselves and get ALL of the negative talk out of our ears. YOU ARE, Because HE IS!!

Cause & Effect

Everything you do has a direct effect on someone else. Love, hate, giving, selfish, focused or distracted, clean or addicted, truthful or a liar. Before you speak, before you act, take a deep breath and know there are always paybacks – good and bad!

Give God Your Best

God gives you His best, not the crumbs. So, why do you think it's ok not to give God YOUR best?? Time to stop being lazy and put one foot in front of the other and be that walking testimony!

ON PATH

IT'S INTERESTING how when we go through very difficult situations, God uses the time so show us our strengths and our weaknesses. When things are troubling, our passions seem to rise to the top. This week I have seen how much "Philly" I still have in me, some old resentments I thought I was rid of, and yet a gratitude for knowing something different and knowing where my Love and Strength my come from. Tonight, I'm celebrating God's Love, His Trust, His Strength, His Clarity and His conviction to keep me on the path. What a Mighty God we Serve!

Hold On A Minute

You drop God's name to sound important, You go to church to be seen but when a challenge comes you are the first to fall apart. God is not just a name, or thing. God IS the creator, protector, healer, supplier, and lover of all. You HAVE to have relationship in order to bring ALL of his blessings. God does not honor a good actor. He will expose you quickly. Stop the fake. Stop trying to get attention. Truly get to know HIM!!

That's Not My Jesus!

HOW CAN YOU SCREAM JESUS, and kick your child to the curb, judge people who are different from you, ignore poverty, put up road blocks to stop someone advancing, not let someone in your church that doesn't smell or dress right, teach your child they are better than others, and Always have to be right.

Stuck?

We can all be in a dark place at some time or another and things seem to be stuck. BUT, God always has a way of sending us a sign. This tree looked like there was no hope and look at it now! Good thing we didn't cut the tree down! There IS still life and life more abundantly. We have to look beyond our eyesight and know that we know God created and God is in control!!

Where Is Your Head?

How many speak one thing but are afraid to speak what is really on their mind for fear of being criticized or badgered. It's time to look in the mirror and know that each voice is as important as anyone else's. When one follows, it is like being a prisoner and told what to think and what to do. Leadership, true leadership should empower, not control. Are you a follower or do you know God created you to have your own voice??

Bishop's Corner

From the Bishops Corner, If God is for u who can be against you, trouble may come, storms may rage, and the wind may blow, but I know a God that can speak to wind and it will cease and say to your storm, peace be still, and it was to obey. Remember storms and test only come to identify our strengths and weaknesses so we can work on our areas of weakness

Live Life On Purpose

Have you ever known people who are trying to be a man or a woman, You don't have try to be what God has designed you to be, too many people are looking to be confirmed by people or a job the preacher the school teacher the next door neighbor instead of being what God has designed us to be, God designed us with divine destiny and divine purpose live. Life on purpose it is your divine destiny to live life on purpose never give anyone power of attorney over your life no matter what has happened in our life as adults we are responsible to live life on purpose and we are accountable to God and no one else, never let others rain on your parade or steer your boat you are the captain of your own ship, be blessed and have a good Day, Food for thought from the Bishops Corner

Be Better Than Yesterday

I want to Thank God for another beautiful day, I love the Lord because he first Loved little old me, God is an awesome God, while everyone else saw the worse in me, they saw a drunk, an old drug addict, someone who would never amount to anything, no future, no destiny, no purpose, the verdict on my life I would die of an overdose, in jail for the rest of my life, or i would be dead before my 18th birthday, but God saw the best in me in 1981 God saved me and turned my life around, not perfect, but striving to be better than yesterday, I may not be all i should be but I am not what I Use to be, and not what I am going to be.

Shadow Of The Almighty

I want to Thank God for another day, for those who love me I thank the almighty God for your love and support, for the haters, the church goers, the self righteous, all those who have slandered my name and don't know me, I am cool with it and I would like to Introduce myself, I am a Child of the most High God who sits High and looks low, Who knew me before I was formed in my Mothers womb, Who called me from the foundation of the word before God said Let Us make man, I was in the Fathers thoughts and heart, and my destiny is sure, I am not perfect, I am flawed, I have been brokened, I have errored and have made a lot of bad decisions, fallen been wounded, had fallen did not think I would ever get up, but, The respirator of Life breathe in me that I might have life and have it more abundantly, i have cried for weeks and months because i had been so broken and alone, Church folks put their foot on my neck while i was going through the worst battle of my life, but, The Navigator of Life and the Master of my destiny spoke peace, life and healing, and told me i would live and not die, I remember growing up as a child one Christmas i got a yogi bear punching bag, I would punch and punch and punch the bag sometimes it look like it wasn't going to get up but every time it would get back up again each time i have been knocked down the Master Adonai would speak a word A Rhema word and through his power i was able to get back up again, for you that don't know me, you wasn't there in my midnight hour when all hell was breaking loose seem like every hell hound was coming against me, But i hear this Omnipotent God say not so, I love him with all my heart am I perfect, NO, but my love and my heart is perfect towards him, so if you want to know who I am check with The Father, No weapon formed against me shall prosper, God did not say it would not be formed, and every wagging tongue that rise up against me shall be condemned, and this is the heritage of the children of God, For You Haters, I will always do WWJD, I will pray for you and love you, and I want to thank you because it makes me cry out to this Great God I serve the more, it makes me retreat to the Secret place of the Most High God, He that dwells in the secret place shall abide under the shadow of The Almighty, and your arms are too short to box with God, The Battle is Not Mine, its The Lords so if you have a problem with me take it up with the Lord.

...from the Bishops Corner

Perfect Day

Good morning, I want to thank God for another perfect day, He is an awesome God and worthy to be praised, thank Him for all he does for me, how God sent angels by my bedside and breathe the breath of life and gave me this brand new day, I realize it was not the alarm clock that woke me this morning so I say Thank you God, what will I do with this day, it is my choice to use this day to glorify and magnify the Lord and let my light shine, to touch someone's life and impact it in a way that they will see the light and glorify my Father which is in heaven, choices of life is ours to make we have been authorized and empowered and given the authority to write the different chapters of life if you did not like the chapter that you are in start writing a new chapter after all you are the autofocus the life and the book you are living write every chapter to the end of being a champion and not the victim, winner not a loser, happy not sad, healthy and not sick, prosperous and not poor in spirit and blessed and not living in lack, on this perfect day that God has given you what will you do with it, From the Bishops corner, ps never to late to start over again and again that is why God gave you a New Day Full of New Mercies, God bless you!
